

&

CalJOBS

California's success begins with you. The career's are out there, let's find yours!

The Proposition 39 Clean Energy Jobs Act is creating demand for workers in energy efficiency related fields. We want Community College students to have every opportunity to fill these positions.

Register today!

- 1. Navigate to www.careercafe.com
- 2. Click on the "Jobs, Apply" button
- 3. located in the top right of the navigation bar click the "Post Resumes" and follow the directions on setting up your free account

Learn More about CalJOBS

CalJOBS offers a full-service employment center for California Community College students to help them find and view job openings, create and post resumes, look for training and much more.

Whether you are looking for an internship, part-time employment or that first career position, these CalJOB listings cover thousands of private, non-profit, and public sector job opportunities. All CalJOB services are free of charge.

- View unduplicated job postings
- Build resumes and cover letters
- Analyze the job market and identify what employers are looking for